The LAG/Arden Chambers Homelessness Conference

Simmons & Simmons, London

15 June 2018

FREE copy of the new 11th edition of Homelessness and Allocations by Andrew Arden QC, Justin Bates and Toby Vanhegan for delegates!*

At this one-day conference leading barristers from the specialist housing, local government and property law set Arden Chambers will be present a comprehensive survey of the main areas of homelessness law. Emphasis will be given to the recent legal developments, including expert analysis of the Homelessness Reduction Act 2017, which came into force in April 2018, but the presenters will also offer delegates practical guidance and advice.

Who should attend?

Solicitors, barristers and advisers working in homelessness and housing law will find this day invaluable. It will also appeal to local authority housing officers and those making homelessness decisions as well as those in the voluntary sector assisting homeless applicants.

The conference will appeal to delegates of all levels and there will be ample time set aside for Q&As to enable delegates to exchange views and ideas.

The venue is easily reached via a number of transport links and is fully wheelchair-accessible. The auditorium has an induction loop fitted. LAG will make every effort to accommodate the accessibility needs of delegates – please contact us to discuss your requirements.
