

Contents

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Battle for legal aid
Fiona Bawdon I'm 100% sure statistics alone won't win the battle over legal aid	1
The Constitution
Baroness Hale of Richmond The pandemic and the Constitution	4
Justice system
Frederick Wilmot-Smith 'If we want things to stay as they are, things will have to change'	6
Justice system
Chris Minnoch What happens when a system has been starved for years on end	9
Society and justice
Nic Madge We would make a difference	11
Judiciary
A District Judge Disengaged from the process	15
Legal profession
Young Legal Aid Lawyers We must all speak with one voice	18
Well-being
Mary-Rachel McCabe Well-being for lawyers: feast or famine	21
Academia
Dr Daniel Newman Greed will be all that stands in the way of change	24

Law schools

Dr Jacqueline Kinghan and Rachel Knowles | There has never been a more important time to listen 27

Society and rights

Jamie Burton | Let's lay the foundations we need to build the better society we want tomorrow 30

EU citizens

Matthew Evans | EU citizens in the UK 33

Immigration

Sadat Sayeed | The immigration debate 37

Victims of trafficking

Victoria Marks | Human connection 40

Roma people

Brigitta Balogh | Roma people in Europe 42

BAME workers

Marc Willers QC | COVID-19 hits black and ethnic minority people the hardest 45

Community care

Nicola Mackintosh QC (Hon) | Ensuring the hard-won rights of us all are not lost 48

Mental capacity

Zena Soormally Bolwig | Underfunding and disconnection in health and social care 51

Mental health

Tam Gill and Sophy Miles | Human contact is important 54

Disabled adults

Steve Broach and Anne-Marie Irwin | Shining a light on disabled people's rights 56

Disabled children

Steve Broach and Polly Sweeney | Already in crisis 59

Transparency

Celia Kitzinger and Gill Loomes-Quinn | Remote justice and transparency in the post-lockdown Court of Protection 61

Housing
Karen Buck MP The crisis of un-met housing need	64
Housing
Giles Peaker All too fragile	67
Rent
Nick Bano What should possession law look like?	70
Community activism
Izzy Köksal Collectivising our individual housing problems	73
Welfare benefits
Tom Royston Making our benefits system work for us all	76
Employment
David Renton In protecting jobs, you save people's homes	78
Trade unions
Zachary Whyte The horror of the crisis has galvanised the legal community to find its feet and fight	81
Maternity rights
Rosalind Bragg Safety for all women, without exception	84
Discrimination
Audrey Ludwig Watch this space	87
Family
Lynn Vernon Behind closed doors	90
Domestic abuse
Cris McCurley Working with the women's sector to combat domestic abuse	92
School exclusions
Michael Etienne Exclusions in the new normal: an irresistible demand for change	95
Youth justice
Kate Aubrey-Johnson The youth justice system locks down	98
Police stations
Jacqui Appleton Ring, ring . . .	101

Criminal justice
Melanie Simpson QC | Racial injustice in the criminal justice system 103

Criminal defence
Rhona Friedman | The victims, not the recipients of justice 106

BLM protests
Patricia Daley and Queenie Djan | The Black Lives Matter Protests 109

Protest and policing
Lydia Dagostino and Jane Cleasby | Protests, policing and the pandemic 112

Inquests
Deborah Coles | The culture of immunity and impunity 114

Prisons
Dr Laura Janes | Prison law in lockdown 118

Prisoners
Charlotte Henry | Waiting on the outside: prisoners in the pandemic 121

Immigration detention
Toufique Hossain | Unable to breathe, locked down and locked in 124

Miscarriages of justice
Jon Robins and Matt Foot | Pandemic or not, we need to talk about miscarriages of justice 126

Future of legal aid
Rohini Teather | R is for Recovery 129

Community justice
Sue James | Out of the shop front 131

Responses
Helen Mowatt | Lawyers must play their part and put themselves at the service of the movement for change 134

Postscript
Carol Storer OBE | Undated 137